Member and Student Enrollment Agreement

- I. The purpose of this agreement is to establish the rights and responsibilities of Cochecton Christian Homeschooling Cooperative (CCHC) and its members, and conforms to the homeschooling laws set forth in New York State Education Law Section 100.10 and the rules governing homeschooling cooperatives as stipulated by the New York State Commissioner of Education at <http://www.nysed.gov/nonpublic-schools/home-instruction-questions-and-answers>.
- II. CCHC agrees to provide and maintain a facility and grounds that are safe and conducive to the spiritual and instructional needs of its students. This includes the timely payment of rent, utilities, internet service, and liability insurance that are consistent with the operations of a cooperative association.
- III. CCHC agrees to provide and maintain supportive instructional components such as computers, a library, arts and crafts, sports equipment, scientific equipment, and additional equipment for the safe storage of student belongings and lunch.
- IV. CCHC agrees to maintain complete transparency with its parent members, such that the facility, organizational records, and business records are available to the parents during business hours and at the monthly meeting. Parent members are encouraged to be present whenever possible.
- V. CCHC agrees to maintain membership with the Home School Legal Defense Association (HSLDA) for the purposes of staying current with homeschooling legislation, resources and research. CCHC agrees to continually seek out professional resources and associations in support of its mission.
- VI. CCHC agrees to provide members with assistance with the legal requirements of homeschooling: writing the letter of intent, writing the Individualized Home Instruction Plan (IHIP), grading and record keeping, up to but not including the submission of quarterly reports and end of the year achievement test results to your local public school district.

VII. You agree that you have read, understood, and will abide by the policies and rules set forth in the CCHC Parent / Student Handbook.

VIII. You agree to purchase the required textbooks and standardized year end achievement tests for your student. You agree to purchase a musical instrument and related instructional materials, should you wish. It is understood that CCHC will seek donations of musical instruments and related instructional materials to assist.

IX. You agree that you are responsible for the timely submission of quarterly reports and the final achievement test scores of your student to your local public school district, as stipulated under New York State Education Law Section 100.10.

X. You represent to CCHC the following*. Please check one:

We are currently members or regular attendees of a Christian church. Please indicate which church: _____

We are not currently members or regular attendees of a Christian church, and seek assistance from CCHC to locate one.

We are not currently members of a Christian church, and are not pursuing membership with a church at this time.

* Although highly encouraged, membership at a Christian church is not required. Your church affiliation is requested for the purposes of fellowship with our cooperative and for community outreach.

XI. You agree to pay CCHC tuition according to the following rates and payment schedule. CCHC reserves the right to ask for the withdrawal of a student whose account is 45 days late.

a. All tuition is due upon the first of the month, with the first payment beginning September 1st and the final payment due June 1st. Payments may be made via check written out to Cochection Christian Homeschooling Cooperative or electronically through the website beginning August 15th.

b. 1st Child..... 10 payments of $630.00

c. 2nd Child..... 10 payments of $450.00

d. 3rd Child..... 10 payments of $270.00

e. Believing that our cooperative will be blessed to help those parent who serve in our Lord's work full-time, all rates will be reduced by half for all children in this category.

It should be emphasized that the above rates represent the minimum required to successfully administrate the operations of CCHC. To the extent that all members of CCHC have an interest in the costs and quality of the program, CCHC will be pursuing not-for-profit status. Thus, participation in this effort as well as help to locate additional sources of funding, donations, and gifts should be considered by those who benefit.
